This matter is before the Chief Procurement Officer for Construction (CPOC) pursuant to a request from Hammer Construction Company (Hammer), under the provisions of §11-35-4210 of the South Carolina Consolidated Procurement Code, for an administrative review on the Woodrow College Façade Improvements bid (“the Project”) for the University of South Carolina (USC). Hammer protests USC’s posting of a Notice of Intent to Award a contract to Huss, Inc. (Huss). Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §11-35-4210(4) (Supp. 2006), the CPOC conducted an administrative review without a hearing. This decision is based on that review and the applicable law and precedents.

NATURE OF THE PROTEST

A copy of Hammer’s protest is incorporated herein by reference and attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

RELEVANT FACTS

1. USC advertised for bids for the Project on September 26, 2011. [Ex. 2]
2. The solicitation required bidders to list on their bid form subcontractors the bidder intended to use on its base bid for the subcontractor specialties of fire-sprinkler and electrical. [Ex. 1, p. OSE004]¹
2. By the time for receipt of bids, USC received seven bids. [Ex. 1, p. OSE010]
3. Hammer submitted the apparent low bid. [Ex. 1, p. OSE010]
4. Six of the bidders listed a licensed electrical contractor for the electrical subcontractor specialty. [Ex. 1, p. OSE010]

4. Six of the bidders listed a licensed electrical contractor for the electrical subcontractor specialty. [Ex. 1, p. OSE010]
5. Hammer listed Diebold Fire Services (Diebold) as its intended subcontractor for the electrical subcontractor specialty. [Ex. 1, pp. OSE004 & OSE010] Diebold is a licensed fire alarm contractor but not a licensed electrical contractor. [Ex. 1, p. OSE002, items 2 & 3]
6. On November 3, 2011, USC posted a Notice of Intent to Award a contract to Huss, the second low bidder. [Ex. 1, p. OSE008]

DISCUSSION

In this solicitation, USC found Hammer non-responsible for listing Diebold for the electrical subcontractor specialty because Diebold did not possess an electrical contractor's license. A determination of responsibility is required by S.C. Code Ann. § 11-35-1810, which states "[r]esponsibility of the bidder or offeror shall be ascertained for each contract let by the State." A procurement officer's determination of responsibility is final and conclusive unless it is "clearly erroneous, arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law." S.C. Code Ann. § 11-35-2410(A). The South Carolina Procurement Review Panel has held that the protestant has the burden of proving that the procurement officer's determination is "clearly erroneous, arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law." Protest of Brantley Construction Co., Inc., Case No. 1999-3.

A responsibility determination is a determination that the bidder has the ability to perform. See S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 19-445.2125(A)(1). Possession of the proper contractor's license, either by the bidder or one of the bidder's listed subcontractors, is an issue of responsibility. Protest of Brantley Construction Co., Inc., 1999-3 (where the State is investigating the bidder's ability to perform it is deciding an issue of responsibility); Protest of Roofco, Inc., Case No. 2000-14(I) (stating that "the lack of a proper license to do the work solicited in a state contract will always render a bidder nonresponsible."). If, at the time of bidding, a subcontractor listed on a bidder's bid does not possess the proper license for performing the work for which the subcontractor was listed, then neither the listed subcontractor nor the bidder are responsible bidders. S.C. Code Ann. § 40-11-200(B)²; See also, Protest of Burkwood Construction Company, Inc., Case No. 1997-8 (affirming its prior decisions that the State cannot accept a bid where the

² This Section reads "[i]t is a violation of this chapter for an awarding authority, owner, contractor...to consider a bid, sign a contract, or allow a contractor to begin work unless the bidder or contractor has first obtained the licenses required by this chapter. Bids or contracts submitted by contractors may not be reconsidered or resubmitted to an the low bidder listed a subcontractor who could not perform the work specified by the bid).

For purposes of this decision, the CPOC assumes the facts alleged by Hammer to be true. According to Hammer's allegations, Diebold submitted a sub-bid for $124,720³, covering both fire alarm work, which Diebold is licensed to perform, and electrical work that Diebold cannot perform under its license. [Ex. 1, p. OSE002, item 3] This electrical work is associated with and compliments the fire alarm work. Diebold intends to self-perform seventy-six percent of the work covered by its sub-bid and have Cummings Electric perform the remaining twenty-four percent under a sub-subcontract with Diebold. [Ex. 1, p. OSE002, items 4 & 5]

The bid form contains a column where the agency identifies subcontractor specialties by contractor "License Classification and/or Subclassification."⁴ In this column, USC identified the specialty of electrical thus requiring each bidder to identify by name the subcontractor(s) he would use to perform the work requiring an electrical contractor's license.⁵ The bid form contained instructions to bidders regarding this requirement, which read as follows:

1. Section 7 of the Bid Form sets forth a list of subcontractor specialties for which bidder is required to identify by name the subcontractor(s) Bidder will use to perform the work of each listed specialty. Bidder must identify only the subcontractor(s) who will perform the work and no others.

2. For purposes of subcontractor listing, a Subcontractor is an entity who will perform work or render service to the prime contractor to or about the construction site. Material suppliers, manufacturers, and fabricators that will not perform physical work at the site of the project but will only supply materials or equipment to the bidder or proposed subcontractor(s) are not subcontractors and Bidder should not insert their names in the spaces provided on the bid form. Likewise, Bidder should not insert the names of sub-subcontractors in the spaces provided on the bid form but only the names of those entities with which bidder will contract directly.

3. Bidder must only insert the names of subcontractors who are qualified to perform the work of the listed specialties as specified in the Bidding Documents and South Carolina Licensing Laws.

awarding authority, contractor, or owner if the contractor was not properly licensed at the time the initial bid or contract was submitted."

³ This amount is a Base Bid amount. Diebold's bid also include an Add Alternate 1 for $5,375.

⁴ SC Code Ann § 11-35-3020(b)(i) requires the agency to "identify by specialty ... all subcontractors who are expected to perform work for the prime contractor ... when those subcontractors' contracts are each expected to exceed three percent of the prime contractor's total base bid." However, the consolidated Procurement Code does not define what constitutes a specialty. The only place in State law that defines contractor/subcontractor specialties is in the licensing laws of Title 40. Therefore, the State uses these license categories and/or subcategories to define subcontractor specialties set forth in the bid form.

[emphasis added] [Ex. 1, p. OSE005]

Hammer, relying on these instructions, only listed Diebold for electrical because only Diebold will be providing electrical services pursuant a direct contractual relationship with Hammer. Moreover, Hammer contends that Diebold was qualified under the licensing laws of South Carolina to perform the work of the electrical subcontractor specialty. In this regard, Hammer asserts that seventy-six percent of the “electrical work” is low voltage fire alarm replacement work, which Diebold may perform under its fire alarm license. Hammer’s letter of protest implies Diebold could legally offer to provide the remaining twenty-four percent of “electrical work” that is outside the scope of its fire alarm license because that work is “ancillary,” compliments the fire alarm work, and is a relatively small proportion of all alleged electrical work. Hammer’s protest also suggests that any determination that Diebold could not offer to provide services requiring an electrical contractor’s license is contrary to law.

The electrical contractor’s license and the work that must be performed by a contractor possessing an electrical contractor’s license (that is, the electrical work) is governed by the Contractors Licensing Act, Title 40, Chapter 11 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, as amended. The Contractors Licensing Act states “no entity or individual may practice as a contractor by performing or offering to perform contracting work ... without a license issued in accordance with this chapter.” (emphasis added) SC Code Ann § 40-11-30. Thus, Diebold cannot offer to perform electrical contracting work as defined by the Contractors Licensing Act without possessing an electrical contractor’s license unless State law provides an exception to the application of SC Code Ann § 40-11-30 to Diebold.

The Contractors Licensing Act does not apply to “an entity which installs ... fire alarm systems if the entity is licensed” under the Alarm System Business Act, Title 40, Chapter 79. SC Code Ann § 40-11-360(A)(1). Therefore, Hammer contends that Diebold, possessing a license issued under the Alarm System Business Act, may offer to install and install fire alarm systems.⁶ However, the issue presented in this protest is not whether Diebold may offer to install fire alarm systems but whether Diebold may offer to provide services that only a contractor possessing an electrical contractor’s license may perform. Neither SC Code Ann § 40-11-360(A) nor the Alarm System Business Act contain an exception allowing Diebold to offer to provide such services.

The only other potential applicable exception to the application of Section 40-11-30 to Diebold’s situation

⁶ A contractor possessing a fire alarm contractor’s license may perform work on low voltage (50 volts or less) fire alarm systems. SC Code Ann §§ 40-79-20(8). A licensed electrical contractor may also perform low voltage fire alarm work. SC Code Ann §§ 40-11-410(5)(d) and 40-79-310(5). However, a fire alarm contractor may not perform situation is set forth in SC Code Ann § 40-11-340. Under SC Code Ann § 40-11-340, a contractor may offer to perform work that includes work outside the limitations of its license, provided that 1) the contractor is licensed under the Contractors Licensing Act; 2) the contractor is acting as a prime contractor; and 3) a specified portion of the work is covered by the contractor's license.⁷ However, Diebold fails to meet the requirement of the exception set forth in SC Code Ann § 40-11-340 on two accounts. Diebold fails to meet the requirements of this exception in the first instance because Diebold is licensed under the Alarm System Business Act, not the Contractors Licensing Act. Diebold fails to meet the requirements of this exception in the second instance because Diebold is not acting as a prime contractor but rather as a subcontractor to a prime contractor. The Contractor's Licensing Act defines a prime contractor as one who contracts directly with an owner. SC Code Ann §40-11-20(17). In this case, USC is the owner, not Hammer. Hammer is the entity proposing to enter into a direct contractual relationship with USC, making Hammer the prospective prime contractor. Diebold proposes to enter into a direct contractual relationship with Hammer, not USC, making Diebold a prospective subcontractor, not prime contractor. SC Code Ann §40-11-20(21).

Because Diebold fails to meet an exception to the application of SC Code Ann § 40-11-30, Diebold may not offer to provide services that may only be performed by a contractor possessing an electrical contractor's license. Moreover, Hammer may not offer a contract to Diebold for these services. SC Code Ann § 40-11-200(B). If Diebold may not offer to perform services requiring an electrical contractor's license and Hammer may not offer a contract to Diebold for these services, USC reasonably determined that Hammer cannot list Diebold on its bid form for the electrical subcontractor specialty of electrical and actually use Diebold for this work as required by Sections 11-35-3020(b)(i) and 11-35-3021. Therefore, USC's determination that Hammer was a non-responsible bidder was not "clearly erroneous, arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law."

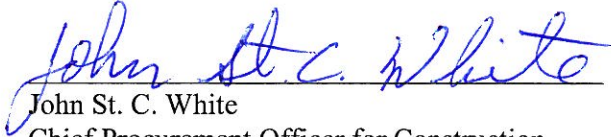

medium voltage work (greater than 50 volts but less than or equal to 600 volts). Medium voltage work requires an electrical contractor's license. SC Code Ann § 40-11-410(5)(d)

⁷ Depending on the license classification or subclassification, the licensed work covered by the contractor's license must be either a minimum of 40% or a minimum of 51% of the total contract amount. The remaining percentage of licensed work may be work outside the scope of the contractor's license. Though not expressly stated in § 40-11-340, read in the context of all of Title 40, Chapter 11, this provision requires that for each portion of the work for which the prime contractor is not licensed, the prime contractor must subcontract with an entity or individual that does possess the proper license to perform that portion of the work. Thus Hammer could have legally bid the entire project even though Hammer's license did not allow them to self perform the electrical work, provided that Hammer subcontracted the electrical work to a properly licensed subcontractor. However, Hammer did not do this and instead listed Diebold for the electrical subcontractor specialty.

DETERMINATION

USC's determination to reject Hammer's bid on the grounds that the subcontractor listed for the electrical subcontractor specialty, Diebold, was not a licensed electrical contractor and therefore was non-responsible was not "clearly erroneous, arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law."

For the forgoing reasons, the protest is denied.

Re: Protest of "Notice of Intent" to award Project No. H27-6062-SG Woodrow College Façade Improvements

Mr. Bailey,

Hammer Construction, LLC (GC License #115813) would like to file an official protest of the "Notice of Intent" to award the above project. (Attached is a copy of the bid form, Notice of Intent to award, and bid tabulation for the above referenced project.)

Reason we were found Non-Responsive:

Hammer Construction was found non-responsive because we listed a contractor (Diebold) on the bid form under contractor specialty that did not have an electrical license. I have included their quote to Hammer Construction for the work pertaining to the contract.

Grounds for the Protest:

Per BF-2A, Instructions for Subcontractor Listing, Hammer Construction is to:

1. List only the contractors who we intend to contract directly.
2. Identify only the subcontractor who will perform the work.
3. Will not insert the name of the sub-subcontractors in the spaces provided.
4. Insert the names of subcontractors who are qualified to perform the work for the listed specialties as specified in the bidding documents and SC Licensing Laws.

Hammer Construction complied with all of the above requirements. We also will execute the contract with licensed contractors as required by SC Laws and as required by the bidding documents.

Reason for who we Listed on the Bid Form:

Hammer Construction Listed "Diebold" on our bid form next to electrical specialty for the following reasons:

1. The vast majority of work in the contract is Fire Alarm replacement as noted on BF-1, 6.1 of the bid form. In fact 76% of the total cost of electrical work is fire alarm replacement and falls under the fire alarm license requirements. (Hammer Construction and Diebold can provide the exact figures if necessary)

P. 803.783.7033 F. 803.783.7035 785 Hampton Creek Way Columbia, SC 29209

2. Diebold is a licensed Fire Alarm Contractor. (FA #3276)
3. Diebold included in their quote to Hammer Construction the Electrical Work that they cannot perform under their license. Their (Diebold's) sub contractor Cummings Electric (License #109548) provided a quote to them to provide the minor electrical work necessary to complete their fire alarm contract. This ancillary work compliments their fire alarm replacement work. (i.e. Fire Suppression Hood systems are being installed above 42 stove locations within the building and Diebold is to monitor all of these devices via new fire alarm. These suppression systems need electrical hookup which Cummings Electrical is providing to Diebold)
4. Diebold is the entity that I will contract directly with. They are providing 76% of the total value/cost of the electrical/fire alarm work under their license.
5. I do not have a contract directly with Cummings Electric because they are a sub contractor of Diebold – see quote. The electrical portion of work provided by Cummings Electric amounts to about 2% of the total cost of construction and 24% of the electrical contract.
6. Diebold is providing a bond to Hammer Construction pursuant to our contract. The 2nd low electrical contractor (M&M Electric) cannot provide a bond to Hammer Construction for the work.

Relief Requested pursuant to the Protest:

Hammer Construction LLC is requesting the following relief with regards to this protest:

1. Hammer Construction is deemed to be a responsive bidder.
2. Hammer Construction is determined to be the lowest responsible and responsive bidder.
3. Hammer Construction is awarded the contract based on the fact that we are the low bidder.

Sincerely,

Robert Lee Hammersla III
Vice President-Hammer Construction

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBCONTRACTOR LISTING

1. Section 7 of the Bid Form sets forth a list of subcontractor specialties for which bidder is required to identify by name the subcontractor(s) Bidder will use to perform the work of each listed specialty. Bidder must identify only the subcontractor(s) who will perform the work and no others.

2. For purposes of subcontractor listing, a Subcontractor is an entity who will perform work or render service to the prime contractor to or about the construction site. Material suppliers, manufacturers, and fabricators that will not perform physical work at the site of the project but will only supply materials or equipment to the bidder or proposed subcontractor(s) are not subcontractors and Bidder should not insert their names in the spaces provided on the bid form. Likewise, Bidder should not insert the names of sub-subcontractors in the spaces provided on the bid form but only the names of those entities with which bidder will contract directly.

3. Bidder must only insert the names of subcontractors who are qualified to perform the work of the listed specialties as specified in the Bidding Documents and South Carolina Licensing Laws.

4. If under the terms of the Bidding Documents, Bidder is qualified to perform the work of a specialty listed and Bidder does not intend to subcontract such work but to use Bidder's own employees to perform such work, the Bidder must insert its own name in the space provided for that specialty.

5. If Bidder intends to use multiple subcontractors to perform the work of a single specialty listing, Bidder must insert the name of each subcontractor Bidder will use, preferably separating the name of each by the word "and". If Bidder intends to use both his own employees to perform a part of the work of a single specialty listing and to use one or more subcontractors to perform the remaining work for that specialty listing, bidder must insert his own name and the name of each subcontractor, preferably separating the name of each with the word "and".

6. Bidder may not list subcontractors in the alternative nor in a form that may be reasonably construed at the time of bid opening as a listing in the alternative. A listing that requires subsequent explanation to determine whether or not it is a listing in the alternative is non-responsive. If bidder intends to use multiple entities to perform the work for a single specialty listing, bidder must clearly set forth on the bid form such intent. Bidder may accomplish this by simply inserting the word "and" between the name of each entity listed for that specialty. Owner will reject as non-responsive a listing that contains the names of multiple subcontractors separated by a blank space, the word "or", a virgule (that is a /), or any separator that the Owner may reasonably interpret as a listing in the alternative.

7. If Bidder is awarded the contract, bidder must, except with the approval of the owner for good cause shown, use the listed entities to perform the work for which they are listed.

8. If bidder is awarded the contract, bidder will not be allowed to substitute another entity as subcontractor in place of a subcontractor listed in Section 7 of the Bid except for one or more of the reasons allowed by the SC Code of Laws.

9. Bidder's failure to insert a name for each listed specialty subcontractor will render the Bid non-responsive.

SE-330 – LUMP SUM BID BID FORM

§ 8. LIST OF MANUFACTURERS, MATERIAL SUPPLIERS, AND SUBCONTRACTORS OTHER THAN SUBCONTRACTORS LISTED IN SECTION 7 ABOVE (FOR INFORMATION ONLY): Pursuant to instructions in the Invitation for Bids, if any, Bidder will provide to Owner upon the Owner's request and within 24 hours of such request, a listing of manufacturers, material suppliers, and subcontractors, other than those listed in Section 7 above, that Bidder intends to use on the project. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that this list is provided for purposes of determining responsibility and not pursuant to the subcontractor listing requirements of SC Code Ann § 11-35-3020(b)(i).

§ 9. TIME OF CONTRACT PERFORMANCE AND LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

a. CONTRACT TIME: Bidder agrees that the Date of Commencement of the Work shall be established in a Notice to Proceed to be issued by the Owner. Bidder agrees to substantially complete the Work within 71 calendar days from the Date of Commencement, subject to adjustments as provided in the Contract Documents.

b. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES: Bidder further agrees that from the compensation to be paid, the Owner shall retain as Liquidated Damages the sum of $1,000.00 for each calendar day the actual construction time required to achieve Substantial Completion exceeds the specified or adjusted time for Substantial Completion as provided in the Contract Documents. This sum is intended by the parties as the predetermined measure of compensation for actual damages, not as a penalty for nonperformance.

§ 10. AGREEMENTS

- a. Bidder agrees that this bid is subject to the requirements of the law of the State of South Carolina.
- b. Bidder agrees that at any time prior to the issuance of the Notice to Proceed for this Project, this Project may be canceled for the convenience of, and without cost to, the State.
- c. Bidder agrees that neither the State of South Carolina nor any of its agencies, employees or agents shall be responsible for any bid preparation costs, or any costs or charges of any type, should all bids be rejected or the Project canceled for any reason prior to the issuance of the Notice to Proceed.
